South Carolina Education Policy Fellowship Program

2023-24 PARTICIPANT APPLICATION

We are pleased that you are considering taking part in the South Carolina Education Policy Fellowship Program (SC-EPFP).

SC-EPFP is a 10-month professional development program for those whose work record reflects strong leadership abilities or potential and a concern for improving the lives of children and youth. It operates under the auspices of the Education Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP) of the Institute for Educational Leadership (IEL) in Washington, DC. Participants in SC-EPFP hold full-time positions in diverse organizations at the local, county, and state levels, and are supported by their employing agencies through sponsorships, schedule-flow or both. Application can be returned digitally by downloading a copy of the editable PDF file, filling it in, and emailing the completed copy to HUDSONTF@MAILBOX.SC.EDU OR printed and mailed to the SC-SIC address listed on page 1.

THE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Fellows remain in their full-time positions and use their work environment as the context for examining important leadership and policy issues in their states and in the nation. SC-EPFP activities are directed by the State Coordinators.

SC-EPFP brings Fellows and ideas together through a variety of on-site learning opportunities (such as seminars, informal discussions, site visits, skill development workshops, and group policy projects), through electronic networking and information sharing, and through participation in a national conference that brings together Fellows from all program sites in the U.S. The Washington Policy Seminar increases Fellows' knowledge of national policy issues and processes, and gives them a chance to explore the impact of national policy on their work. An in-state Fall Leadership Retreat heightens Fellows' understanding of leadership challenges and of themselves as leaders.

Participation in SC-EPFP yields important results. The program's complementary dimensions of work/learning, state/ national, and actual/virtual activities provide Fellows with a unique personal and professional development laboratory for applying new insights and for practicing new skills. Fellows are given many opportunities to develop a deeper understanding of the policy process; hone their communication and decision-making skills; refine their potential for leadership; and expand their network of professional colleagues. As a result, employing agencies are rewarded with better informed and more skillful employees.

PROGRAM FEES AND SPONSORSHIP

Each participant's employing agency/sponsor pays the base SC-EPFP Program Fee of $2,750, as well as a similar amount for transportation expenses (monthly in-state sessions and annual Washington Policy Seminar). In addition, the employer provides release time for on-site and national activities. The Program Fee includes overnight accommodations for the in-state Fall Leadership Retreat.

Scholarship opportunities may exist to assist some participants with the Program Fee. Applicants should direct their scholarship questions to the SC-EPFP Coordinators.

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION PROCESS

SC-EPFP invites your application if you have:

- a commitment to personal and professional development on behalf of children and youth;
- a track record for making things happen—inside and across agencies/organizations;
- substantive work experiences;
- a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent;
- a full-time professional position;
- and the endorsement and financial support of your employing organization.

SC-EPFP requires participation in on-site training activities which are held one day per month except for the two-day Fall Leadership Retreat and the multi-day Washington Policy Seminar. (Fellows are expected to participate in the WPS as a requirement for SC-EPFP completion.) Please consider these extra demands on your time in light of your current professional and personal schedules. If you believe you cannot participate fully in SC-EPFP, please do not complete the application at this time but do consider it for a future year when your schedule may permit. Final selection of Fellows is made by the SC-EPFP Coordinators.

The deadline to submit applications is Friday, August 25, 2023.
